

Nº1

Buy recycled stuff

Look for the recycle mark on things that you buy – it means they've been made using recycled parts. It takes loads less energy to make recycled products than to make new ones.

Nº2

Talk

Don't just be an eco-warrior on your own. The more people make small changes to their lives, the more impact it will have. Talk to your friends, teachers and parents about doing things to save the planet.

Junior Polar Traveller logo
(Needs to be a button/link)